TACKLE BOX OF CREATIVITY TO TRANSFORM FISHTOWN SCHOOL

Philadelphia, PA.--- During the week of October 6-10th, 2014, artists from the Philadelphia-based arts-education nonprofit Art Sphere Inc. will be leading a school-wide mural-painting project that will transform the southern facade of the Alexander Adaire K-8 School along Thompson Street.

Sponsored by Adaire Home & School and Friends of Adaire, the project will be led by Art Sphere's talented artist-educators. The project will enable every Adaire student to contribute to the fish-themed mural design, and they will also “tackle” the new fish-shaped garbage cans provided by the Fishtown Neighbors Association's Beautification Committee. Additional funding for this project is provided by Art Sphere Inc. through grants from the Penn Treaty Special Services District and the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation.

Volunteers are welcome and can contact Art Sphere Inc. at 215-413-3955 or by email to register at info@artsphere.org. More information can be found at www.artsphere.org.
