

Pine Trees and Cardinals

Virginia Pine is a type of pine tree found in the Eastern United States. It has small, spiky cones and needles that come in groups of two. Northern Cardinals live throughout Eastern North America, from Mexico to Maine. Males have bright red feathers, and females have light brown feathers. They don't migrate in the winter, so you can find them year-round in Pennsylvania.