

Social Awareness Artistic Challenge

Think about the following prompt, "What do mirrors, windows, and sliding glass doors at school look like when we create a world where everyone is treated fairly and is able to reach their full potential." Think of ways that you see yourself helping and contributing to this world that you are imagining.

Draw a picture of yourself with your new friends.

What are the actions you and our society have to take in order to create this world?
