

National Tourism Day

September 27 is National Tourism Day! Celebrate by decorating the post card below. Color the right side with a memory from your favorite vacation or choose a place you want to visit! On the left side, address your postcard, color the stamp and write a description. That could be a description of the memory or what you would do on your dream vacation!

Fold along the dashed line and tape or glue closed.

