

Executive Branch

The job of the executive branch is to make sure that people obey the laws made by the Legislative Branch. The leader of the Executive Branch is the president, who oversees the other parts of the branch. The branch includes the President, the Vice President, the Executive Office and the President's Cabinet.

The President's Cabinet is a group of 15 people who are appointed by the President and approved by the Senate. Each person is the head (or "Secretary") of a different department.

Departments of the Cabinet:

State

Treasury

Defense

Attorney General

Interior

Agriculture

Commerce

Labor

Health and Human Services

Housing and Urban Development

Transportation

Energy

Education

Veterans Affairs

Homeland Security

Cut out and color the White House!

