

Expressionism – Doctor’s Visit Example

Expressionism is all about painting and drawing the way you feel about something. Below is a drawing of a doctor’s stethoscope. Do you like the doctor’s office? If so, use calming, light colors, and smooth lines to show you feel comfortable and relaxed. If you don’t like it, then use harsh, dark colors and jagged lines when drawing and coloring the stethoscope.

