

THE NEANG

Neang, which means female, is one of the roles in Cambodian classical dance. Young girls learning Cambodian Classical Dance typically start with this role to begin with and move onto other roles as they grow older and stronger.

There are also many different styles of costumes associated with this role.

Here is a coloring sheet based on the former Princess Buppha Devi, who is performing a sacred dance called Robam Tiyae!

