

GRIFFIN

Griffins date back to Ancient Iran before they were found in Greece! In their myths, Griffins were called Shirdal, meaning 'Lion-Eagle'. They were a symbol of strength, and often guarded a treasure. They have the body and tail of a lion, and head and wings of an eagle.

Color the griffin on this handout and then cut it out.

Have fun!

