

Betty Osceola

Betty Osceola is a Miccosukee (located in Florida) tribal elder, indigenous advocate, educator, and conservationist who actively fights for clean water, anti-fracking, sacred spaces, and Indigenous women's rights.

Osceola is an active defender of clean water and anti-pollution in the Florida Everglades.

Color the portrait below!

