

The Recorder

The recorder is an instrument that is apart of the woodwind instrument family. The recorder was created in Europe during the Middle Ages. The recorder is widely used amongst elementary schools to teach music due to its simplicity to play and learn.

