

Pennsylvania State Bird: Ruffed Grouse

The Pennsylvania state bird has been the Ruffed Grouse since 1931. Non-migratory, this game bird is highly adaptable due in large part to its varied diet. Ruffed grouse are omnivores, eating berries, buds, leaves, seeds, and insects.

Directions: Color in and cut out

